Will Patterson was re-elected as Director of the Meridian Precinct 2 of the Nampa & Meridian Irrigation District in the November 6th election, officials with the District have announced.

Patterson defeated Stephen Warren by a margin of 177 to 46 votes. Patterson was the incumbent in the post and was first elected to the NMID Board of Directors in 2014.

The NMID Board declared Patterson the winner after it certified the election results at its November 20 meeting. He will be officially sworn in to the Meridian Precinct Director post at a NMID board meeting set for January 2, 2019 and will serve another three-year term.

The Nampa & Meridian Irrigation District is a water storage, conveyance and distribution system founded in 1904. NMID supplies irrigation water to more than 69,000 acres of farmland and pressurized urban irrigation systems on more than 17,000 parcels of land, including 479 subdivisions in Ada and Canyon counties..
